TO BUILD ROADS NEAR HERE

Petition Filed to Form Special District Near Here.

Petitions containing the names of 132 land owners in the proposed McCredie-Hereford-Stephens special road district, asking the county court to call an election to organize the district, were filed last week. The petitioners own 22,637 of the 35,170 acres of land in the proposed district. Action on the petitions will come in August.

The petitions were put in circulation two weeks ago, and owing to the busy time with farmers, a number of persons, who are believed to be favorable to the organization were not seen. The signers, however, represent nearly two-thirds of the acreage of the district, while a majority would be sufficient on which to call the election.

It is already known that there will be some opposition to the formation of the district, for a delegation of farmers from the Earl neighborhood appeared before the county court informally Monday to protest. They said that their lands were in the district, but the roads which have to travel are outside of its boundaries.

Favorable action on the matter by the county court is optional, notwithstanding the majority petition, the law giving the court authority to determine the wisdom of forming such a district. The organization of an old district, which covered a large part of the territory of the proposed new district, was set aside by the court several months ago because it was considered as it stood against the best interests of the county. Some of the objections of the court to the old district have been met by including land in the proposed new district that was not in the old one.

TO ISSUE PAPER IN TRENCHES

Editor of Cass County Democrat to Have Journal for Troops.

Plans have been perfected by Frank Armstrong, editor of the Cass County Democrat, for the establishment of a newspaper to be published in the camps of the Missouri troops.

He will carry a portable printing and publishing plant which he can take to the "jumping-in-place", the trenches and get out a daily newspaper. The paper is to be called the Missouri Guardsman and will be printed primarily for the Second and Fourth Regiments. Mr. Armstrong expects to have his plant so arranged that he can get out extra editions, giving full details of the battle, before the echo has died away.

Strawn Neate
The Store of Standard Merchandise—
D. C. CO.

This $9.00 Oxford Now $7.00

Tomorrow we start a sale of every men's low shoe in our store. Due to the backward season we have a great many more low shoes on hand than ordinarily.

We bought these shoes some time ago when prices were very low compared with present day values. It would cost us as much to buy these shoes now as we have been selling them for, so we are prepared to give you a real bargain. Every pair of men's low shoes is included in this sale.

Just think of it—our Banisters that sell for $9.00 per pair will be sold at $7.00. $8.00 Florshems will be sold at $6.25. These include the new dark shades of tan, black velvet calf, black kid, etc.

We also have some cheaper low shoes—good values at the following prices:

$6.00 Oxfords at $4.50
$5.00 Oxfords at $3.75
$4.00 Oxfords at $3.00

It is somewhat unusual for us to have a sale when warm weather is just in season. We have too many low shoes is the reason. We are going to convert them into cash and it is to your advantage—so come early.
